

Being happy doesn't mean that everything is perfect. It means that you've decided to look beyond the imperfections.

Don't educate your children to be rich.

EDUCATE

them to be happy, so they know the value of things, not the price.

